The 2010 Chrome Glidden Tour will be August 8-13 in beautiful Taos, New Mexico. This tour is designed for original and restored cars built from 1934 to 1985. If you have a car outside of this range, it may also be admitted on a space available basis.

Tour registration opens on Sunday August 8 at the historic Sagebrush Inn at 1508 Paseo del Pueblo Sur, call (800) 428-3626. This fine adobe hotel and convention center has been a hub for gatherings in Taos since the 1930's. It features hand carved furniture in most rooms and regular live country western music in its lounges and restaurants. Rooms have been blocked at rates from $79 to $129, depending on room size and amenities. This hotel is pet friendly and includes a cooked breakfast. The proprietors of the Sagebrush also offer rooms at similar rates at the nearby Comfort Suites and Quality Inn. Mention the 2010 Chrome Glidden Tour to obtain these discounted rates. Reserve early, Taos is a popular destination and rooms can fill over the summer.

Following a welcome buffet on Sunday evening, Chrome Glidden Tourists will enjoy five days of driving tours. Tourists will discover the treasures of Taos and northern New Mexico, an area packed with fantastic scenery, amazing art, rich history, southwestern architecture and fine shopping. Tour routes are still being planned, but expect to see Los Alamos, Chimayo, The Rio Grande Gorge and the Philmont Boy Scout Ranch.

Taos is in the high country beneath the majestic Sangre de Cristo Mountains in northern New Mexico. Most of the tour routes are above 7000 ft.
